LITERARY REVOLUTION and UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE

An Encyclopædia in 20 vols., over 16,000 pages; 10 per cent. more matter than any Enclyclopædia ever before published in this country, and sold handsomely and well bound, in cloth for $10, in half more of for $15, and printed on fine heavy paper, wide margins, bound in half Rassia, gilt top, for $20 -an enterprise so extraordinary that its success, beyond all precedent in book publishing, may be fairly claimed to inauguarate a Literary Revolution.

THE LIBRARY OF UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE is a reprint entire of the last (1879) Edinburgh edition of "Chamber's Encyclopedia, with about 40 per cent. of new matter adned, upon topics of special interest to American readers, thus making it equal in character to any similar work, better than any other suited to the wants of the great majority of those who consult works of reference, and altogether the latest Encyclopedia in the field.

Specimen Volumes in either style will be sent for examination with privilege of return or ceipt of proportionate price per volume. Special Discounts to all early subscribers, and extra discounts to clubs. Pull particularly with descriptive catalogue of many other standard works equally low in price, sent tree.

Leading principles of the American Book Exchange:

I. Publish only books of real value. II. Work upon the basis of present cost of making books, about one half what it was a few years ago.

III. Sell to buyers direct, and save them the 50 to 60 per cent. commission comments allowed to a time—adopt the low price and sell the large quantity.

V. Use good type, paper, etc., do careful printing, and strong, nest binding, but avoid all "padding," fat and heavily leaded type, spongy paper and gausty binding, which are so commonly resorted to to make books appear large and flue, and which greatly said to their cost, but do not said to their value. 1V. The cost of books when made 10,000 at a time is but a fraction of the cost when made 500 at
